COMPOUNDS

PVC compounds are durable and cost-effective materials created by blending PVC resin with additives, making them widely used across various industries such as footwear and cables.

Our Journey

Our growth trajectory reached a landmark in 2011 with the commissioning of our state-of-the-art, fully automated PVC compounding unit in Bhiwadi, Rajasthan. Driven by a relentless commitment to vertical integration, we achieved a significant breakthrough in 2014 by establishing a PVC Heat Stabilizer facility. This transformed our Bhiwadi unit into India's first and largest fully automated, integrated complex capable of manufacturing both compounds and stabilizers under one roof. This ecosystem of 'Backward Integration' was further bolstered in 2017 by our expansion into in-house plasticizer manufacturing; this ensures absolute control over our core chemistry and delivers unparalleled precision across our entire portfolio.
